Proficio Partners With Qualys to Provide Cloud-Based IT Security and Compliance for Medium-Sized Businesses

Proficio to Offer Qualys IT Security and Compliance Cloud Solutions Along With Its Real-Time Event Monitoring for a Unified, Easy-to-Use Service

REDWOOD CITY, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 05/21/13 -- Qualys, Inc. (NASDAQ: QLYS), a pioneer in cloud-based security and compliance solutions, and Proficio Inc., a leading provider of managed security services, today announced a partnership to provide the QualysGuard suite of IT security and compliance solutions along with Proficio's managed services -- providing customers with a cost-effective, comprehensive security and compliance solution that includes continuous monitoring, logging, analysis and remediation.

Proficio's new ProSCAN service helps customers proactively manage risk, meet compliance requirements and maximize uptime. The cloud service includes SIEM-as-a-service, real-time security event monitoring and log retention. Now, with its partnership with Qualys, the service will include the QualysGuard Cloud Platform and integrated suite of IT security and compliance solutions -- including Vulnerability Management, Web Application Scanning, PCI and Policy Compliance -- to deliver a unified, comprehensive solution that helps customers proactively and continuously protect their data and IT assets against security threats.

"We are excited to partner with Qualys to offer its industry-leading, easy-to-use, highly accurate solutions to our customers as part of our ProSCAN service," said Tim McElwee, Chairman and COO, Proficio Inc. "Leveraging QualysGuard, ProSCAN is now the easiest way to meet security and compliance monitoring, logging, and scanning requirements in one simple cloud-based service for a very affordable subscription fee."

"Proficio ProSCAN combines the power of QualysGuard with Proficio's security event monitoring in a single unified cloud solution, thus helping medium-sized organizations tackle their security challenges more effectively and at an affordable cost," said Philippe Courtot, chairman and CEO for Qualys.
